

Friends of the Earth

DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

This document provides a concise policy regarding the data protection practices of Friends of the Earth Ireland and is part of our commitment to data protection by design and default.

Friends of the Earth is a data controller with reference to the personal data which it manages, processes and stores.

Friends of the Earth is committed to keeping personal data safe, in particular is committed to privacy and data protection in respect of the rights of data subjects. Friends of the Earth Ireland is committed to retaining transparency and accountability in data use and management.

PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

As a data controller, Friends of the Earth Ireland and its staff (hereafter referred-to collectively as Friends of the Earth) must comply with the data protection Principles set out in the relevant Irish and EU legislation.

This Policy applies to all personal data collected, processed and stored by Friends of the Earth in the course of its activities. This Policy is designed to ensure Friends of the Earth's compliance with the following legislation:

- The European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- The EU Electronic Communications Regulations (2011)
- The Data Protection Act (2018)

The GDPR confers rights on individuals as well as additional responsibilities on those persons and organizations processing personal data and Friends of the Earth will ensure that all policies and activities are done in compliance with this legislation.

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Policy:

'Personal data' means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;

'Processing' means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction;

'Controller' means the natural or legal person which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data;

'Processor' means a natural or legal person, which processes personal data on behalf of the controller;

'Consent' of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her;

'Supervisory authority' means the Irish Data Protection Commissioner, as an independent public authority established by Ireland pursuant to Article 51 of the GDPR.

FRIENDS OF THE EARTH IRELAND'S USE OF PERSONAL DATA

Friends of the Earth Ireland, as a data controller, collects, processes and stores significant volumes of personal and sensitive personal data on an ongoing basis.

Friends of the Earth Ireland collects data about its staff, donors, partners and programme participants who come into contact with the organisation through our campaigning work.

The personal data collected is dependent on how you engage with Friends of the Earth and what information you disclose. Information could be disclosed digitally via email, through our website (making a donation, registering for an event, taking an online action, subscribing to newsletter) or making a payment via bank transfer. Information may be disclosed physically by signing a petition at an event, completing an evaluation form at a workshop or sending your CV by post. Information may also be disclosed verbally over the phone.

The information collected may include your first name, surname, postal address, e-mail address, phone number, date of birth, sex and/or gender, credit card / debit card information, bank details, your personal preferences about being contacted and your comments about our services. Photographs and video footage of individuals may be taken at events, only with consent, and stored for communications use and reporting purposes.

Engaging with Friends of the Earth websites, data collected may also include the following:

- Technical information, including the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet, browser type and version, time zone setting, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system, platform and device.

- Information about your visit, including the full Uniform Resource Locators (URL) clickstream to, through and from our site (including date and time); topics you viewed or searched for; page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), and methods used to browse away from the page.

Third parties that Friends of the Earth works with (including, business partners, sub-contractors in technical, payment and delivery services, advertising networks, data analytics service providers, search information providers) may also process your personal data. All such processing will be done in compliance with GDPR.

This Policy applies to all data collected, both manually and automated, held by Friends of the Earth Ireland. This includes electronic and paper records.

REASONS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

OPERATIONAL PURPOSES

- To provide our subscribers with information on our work and opportunities to get involved and support our work
- The organization and facilitation of campaign actions and other activity
- The collection and management of donations
- The operations, monitoring and evaluation of our work, including outreach, public campaigning, advocacy, and communications work
- The recruitment, management and payment of staff, contractors and volunteers
- Ensuring the security of staff and premises
- Compliance with statutory obligations

PROFILING

Friends of the Earth may run data analysis for identifying opportunities for fundraising and campaigning tailored to the interests of supporters.

One such process is wealth screening, a process that exclusively uses publicly available information sources to identify the capacity of supporters to make a donation. Friends of the Earth's data may undergo wealth screening on rare occasions. If you prefer not to be included in wealth screening, you can opt out at any time by making a request by email to dataprotection@foe.ie or phone our office 01-6394652.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA:

Friends of the Earth may share personal data with selected third parties including:

- Project or campaign funders, service suppliers and sub-contractors for the performance of relevant contract
- Analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimization of our websites

We may disclose your personal information to third parties in the following circumstances:

- In the event that Friends of the Earth sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets
- If Friends of the Earth were ever to merge with another charity, in which case personal data held by us about our supporters would transfer to the merged entity.
- If we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms and conditions and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of any of the Friends of the Earth staff, our supporters, our service recipients or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of national security, fraud protection and credit risk reduction
- Where we engage the services of third parties, such services are covered by an appropriate contract, and any data acquired in the course of such services is processed in compliance with the GDPR

OWNERSHIP

The Data Protection Policy is maintained by the Friends of the Earth Data Protection Committee, which comprises of the Head of Supporter Care and Communications and the Head of Operations and Finance. Further comments or questions on the content of this Policy should be directed to the Committee by emailing dataprotection@foe.ie. Any material changes to this Policy will require approval by the Data Protection Committee.

EMPLOYERS

In its role as an employer, Friends of the Earth Ireland keeps information relating to staff members to ensure its compliance with employment law.

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that all staff members receive awareness raising and training on data protection.

Failure of Friends of the Earth Ireland staff to process personal data in compliance with this Policy may result in disciplinary proceedings.

THE DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

The following key Principles are enshrined in EU legislation and are fundamental to Friends of the Earth Ireland's Data Protection Policy.

In its capacity as data controller, Friends of the Earth Ireland ensures that all data shall:

1. BE OBTAINED AND PROCESSED FAIRLY AND LAWFULLY

Friends of the Earth Ireland will only process personal data in line with one of the lawful bases enshrined in Article 7 of the GDPR. Friends of the Earth Ireland will fulfill its obligation in this regard by ensuring that:

- Where applies, the informed consent of the data subject will be sought before their data is processed. Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that the request for consent is presented in a manner which is clearly distinguishable from the other matters, in an intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language. Friends of the Earth Ireland will also ensure that the data subject is made aware of his or her right to withdraw his or her consent at any time
- Where consent is not requested, Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that collection of the data is justified under one of the other lawful processing conditions listed in Article 7 of the GDPR (compliance with legal obligation, contractual necessity, vital interests of data subject, public interest, or the legitimate interests of the data controller);
- Where the data processed by Friends of the Earth Ireland can be considered sensitive personal data, as defined in Article 9 of the GDPR, Friends of the Earth Ireland will not collect, process and store such data, unless permissible under the exemptions listed in Article 2 (a-j) of the GDPR;
- Where Friends of the Earth Ireland intends to record activity on CCTV or video, a Fair Processing Notice will be posted in full view, prior to the recording and purpose, storage and the conditions for viewing the data will be laid out clearly and communicated to staff;
- Processing of the personal data will be carried out only as part of Friends of the Earth Ireland's lawful activities, and it will safeguard the rights and freedoms of the data subject;
- The data subject's personal data will not be disclosed to a third party other than to a party contracted by Friends of the Earth Ireland and operating on its behalf, or where Friends of the Earth Ireland is required to do so by law.

2. BE OBTAINED ONLY FOR ONE OR MORE SPECIFIED, LEGITIMATE PURPOSES

Friends of the Earth Ireland will obtain data for purposes which are specific, lawful and clearly stated. A data subject will have the right to question the purpose(s) for which Friends of the Earth Ireland holds their data, and Friends of the Earth Ireland will be able to clearly state that purpose or purposes.

3. NOT BE FURTHER PROCESSED IN A MANNER INCOMPATIBLE WITH THE SPECIFIED PURPOSE(S)

Any use of the data by Friends of the Earth Ireland will be compatible with the purposes for which the data was acquired and Friends of the Earth Ireland take steps to ensure that no personal data will be further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes in line with the principles laid down in Article 5 of the GDPR.

4. BE ADEQUATE, RELEVANT AND NOT EXCESSIVE IN RELATION TO THE PURPOSE(S) FOR WHICH THE DATA WERE COLLECTED AND PROCESSED

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that the data it processes in relation to data subjects is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data is collected, in line with the principles laid down in Article 5 of the GDPR. Data which is not relevant to such processing will not be acquired or maintained, in line with the principle of data minimisation.

5. BE KEPT ACCURATE, COMPLETE AND UP-TO-DATE WHERE NECESSARY

Friends of the Earth shall endeavor to keep the personal data it controls as accurate and up-to-date as possible, in line with the principles laid down in Article 5 of the GDPR, and to correct any inaccuracies as soon as they are discovered.

6. NOT BE KEPT FOR LONGER THAN IS NECESSARY TO SATISFY THE SPECIFIED PURPOSE(S)

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that personal data is not kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose for which the data is processed, in line with the principles laid down in Article 5 of the GDPR.

7. BE KEPT SAFE AND SECURE

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that the personal data it collects will be protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

In the event of a data breach likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of the data subject or other persons, Friends of the Earth Ireland will notify the Irish Data Protection Commissioner without undue delay and, where feasible, within 72 hours after having become aware of the breach, in line with Article 33 of the GDPR.

In the event of a data security breach affecting the personal data being processed on behalf of the data controller, the relevant third party processor will notify the data controller without undue delay.

DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

A 'data subject' is any person whose data we process and store.

CLEAR AND EASILY ACCESSIBLE COMMUNICATION

Friends of the Earth Ireland will take appropriate measures to ensure any and all communication with a data subject is conducted in a concise, transparent, intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language that is easy for the data subject to understand.

INFORMATION PROVIDED TO DATA SUBJECTS

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that all data subjects will be made aware, at the time their data is being collected, of:

- The identity of the data controller (Friends of the Earth Ireland);
- The purpose(s) for which the data is being processed;
- The legitimate interests pursued by the controller (if processing is based on Article 6 (1)(f) of the GDPR)
- The person(s) to whom the data may be disclosed by the data controller;
- Any other information that is necessary so that the processing may be considered fair.

RIGHT OF ACCESS BY DATA SUBJECTS

Upon receipt of a valid, formal request by a data subject in relation to the personal data held by Friends of the Earth Ireland which relates to them, Friends of the Earth Ireland will provide the data subject with the following information, free of charge, in line with Article 15 of the GDPR:

- The basis on which the data was obtained.
- The purposes for processing the data.
- The categories of personal data concerned.
- To whom the data has been or will be disclosed.
- Whether the data has been or will be transferred outside of the EU.
- The period for which the data will be stored, or the criteria to be used to determine retention periods.
- Information about the right to make a complaint to the Irish Data Protection Commissioner.
- Information about the right to request rectification or deletion of the data.
- Whether the individual has been subject to automated decision making.

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that all subject access requests receive a response within 30 days. Further details can be found in the Friends of the Earth Ireland Subject Access Request Policy.

RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION AND THE RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN

As covered above in point 5 of this Policy, Friends of the Earth Ireland has put in place processes to ensure the accurate nature of the personal data it collects. However, in the event that a data subject submits a valid request for correction or completion of incorrect or incomplete data, Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that any such data will be rectified or completed without undue delay, in line with Article 16 of the GDPR, and that the data subject is informed of the correct or completion of data.

Friends of the Earth Ireland will ensure that, upon request of the data subject, and where one of the specific grounds listed in Article 17 of the GDPR applies, all personal data related to the data subject in question is erased without undue delay, and that the data subject is informed of the erasure.

THE RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING AND THE RIGHT TO OBJECT

Friends of the Earth Ireland will put in place processes that ensure respect for a data subject's right to object or have restriction put in place against processing of their data. Friend of the Earth will ensure these processes comply fully with Articles 19 and 21 of the GDPR.

REVIEW

This Policy will be reviewed at least annually by the Friends of the Earth Data Protection Committee to ensure alignment to appropriate risk management requirements and its continued relevance to current and planned operations, or legal developments and legislative obligations. Any changes to this privacy policy will be posted on this page.

DATA PROTECTION COMMITTEE CONTACT DETAILS:

The Data Protection Policy is maintained by the Friends of the Earth Head of Supporter Care and Communications and the Head of Finance and Operations.

Claudia Tormey – Head of Supporter Care and Communications

Audrey Vallier - Head of Finance and Operations

Email: dataprotection@foe.ie

Phone: 01-6394652

SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

Friends of the Earth Ireland's headquarters is in Ireland. Should you wish to contact the relevant supervisory authority in relation to a data protection issue involving Friends of the Earth Ireland, you should contact:

The Irish Data Protection Commissioner

Telephone	+353 57 8684800 +353 (0)761 104 800
Fax	+353 57 868 4757
Postal Address	Data Protection Commissioner Canal House Station Road Portarlinton
Dublin Office	21 Fitzwilliam Square Dublin 2 D02 RD28 Ireland.
Portarlinton Office	Canal House Station Road Portarlinton R32 AP23 Co. Laois